

Testimonials

“Access to the Bridgeman education art collection is an invaluable resource for the Open College of the Arts, enriching the study of all of our students, and upping the quality of our course materials. We are also delighted with the quality of service we get from the team at Bridgeman.”

Jane Horton, Curriculum Director, The Open College of the Arts, UK.

“Bridgeman Education is an excellent source for images from many sources. The Bridgeman people have been great to work with, often supplying us with larger and improved images when desired. It is not expensive and our experience so far is one of high value”

Trudy Jacoby, Director, Visual Resources Collection, Princeton University, USA.

“I use it [Bridgeman Education] extensively to research imagery and find it incredibly useful. I must admit it's become an essential shortcut to finding art references. I would definitely, and have, recommended it to my fellow students.”

Sarah Knight, BA Fine arts student, London Met University
